

Harry Dowling Award

The Harry Dowling Award was created by the South Australian Association of Regional Tourism Organisations in 1983 to recognise excellence in regional tourism. The Award is in memory of the late Harry Dowling, one of the early pioneers of regional tourism in South Australia. The former Mayor of Moonta, and local tradesperson from Yorke Peninsula, was dedicated to tourism promotion of the Yorke Peninsula and the State.

Eligibility

The award will be presented to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the South Australian tourism industry.

Nominees must:

- a) Be involved (past or present) with a recognised Regional Tourism Body.
- b) Have significantly contributed to regional tourism.

(Note: past recipients are ineligible to enter.)

Nomination Process:

The nominator must prepare a 500 word submission to support the application of their chosen individual.

Nominations are now open with submissions due by Friday 23rd April 2010.

No entry fee is required for this category.
